

Planning Financial Futures

Do you spend more time planning your annual vacation than you do thinking about your personal finances? If so, you're not alone. A lot of people put off financial planning or avoid it altogether.

Personal financial planning is an ongoing, lifelong process. If we break it down into small, achievable tasks, it's a lot less daunting and can pay huge dividends to you and your family.

Resolve to make yourself financially fit in 2022:

The following personal finance calendar may help you get started.

January <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Manage your debt. Start by paying off all high-cost and consider establishing an emergency fund.</li> <li>✓ Create a cash flow statement of prior year income minus expenses. Calculate personal net worth.</li> <li>✓ Consider if your portfolio's original target asset allocation needs rebalancing.</li> <li>✓ Take full advantage of any available employer match.</li> </ul>	July <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Consider reading one book on personal finance or investing.</li> </ul>
